Judee Ma Roff

Judee,
I wish our friendship did half to end this way, your a great friend and I know you are always there with a ear. Thanks for introducing Rick and I, hope you find someone just as nice.
Good luck always, hope to see you sometime.

Love
Terry

Judee —
It's been a pleasure knowing you this year I'm sure that you'll succeed in everything you do.

ADMINISTRATION

and faculty

H.W. Adams

This has been a most interesting year. Our athletic teams have been very successful. Our scores on the twelfth grade testing have indicated the academic performance of our student body. The Accreditation Report of our faculty, students and staff, reflected the results of our self evaluation. This year at Grant seems to epitomize Superintendent William Johnston's statement that we are now in a "climate of excellence."

The Grant Family, the Student Body, the Faculty, the Staff, the Parents and the Community, should take pride in its school. True it is that no person or institution can satisfy each and every member or facet of its constituency. And yet as Grant grows to meet the needs of all its family, it is becoming ever closer to its real purpose. We all should recognize that as we realize our goal of excellence, we shall face challenges. Resolving these problems or challenges are steps to growing up, our immediate objective.

Grant is changing and change can be good!

Time

We will never have enough time:
To explore the unexplored...
To touch someone who is lonely.
If the smartmen used their time to use their brains, to help people instead of kill them with the weapons they invent, Because a young man of 20 will never get the chance to really live and his time will have to end.
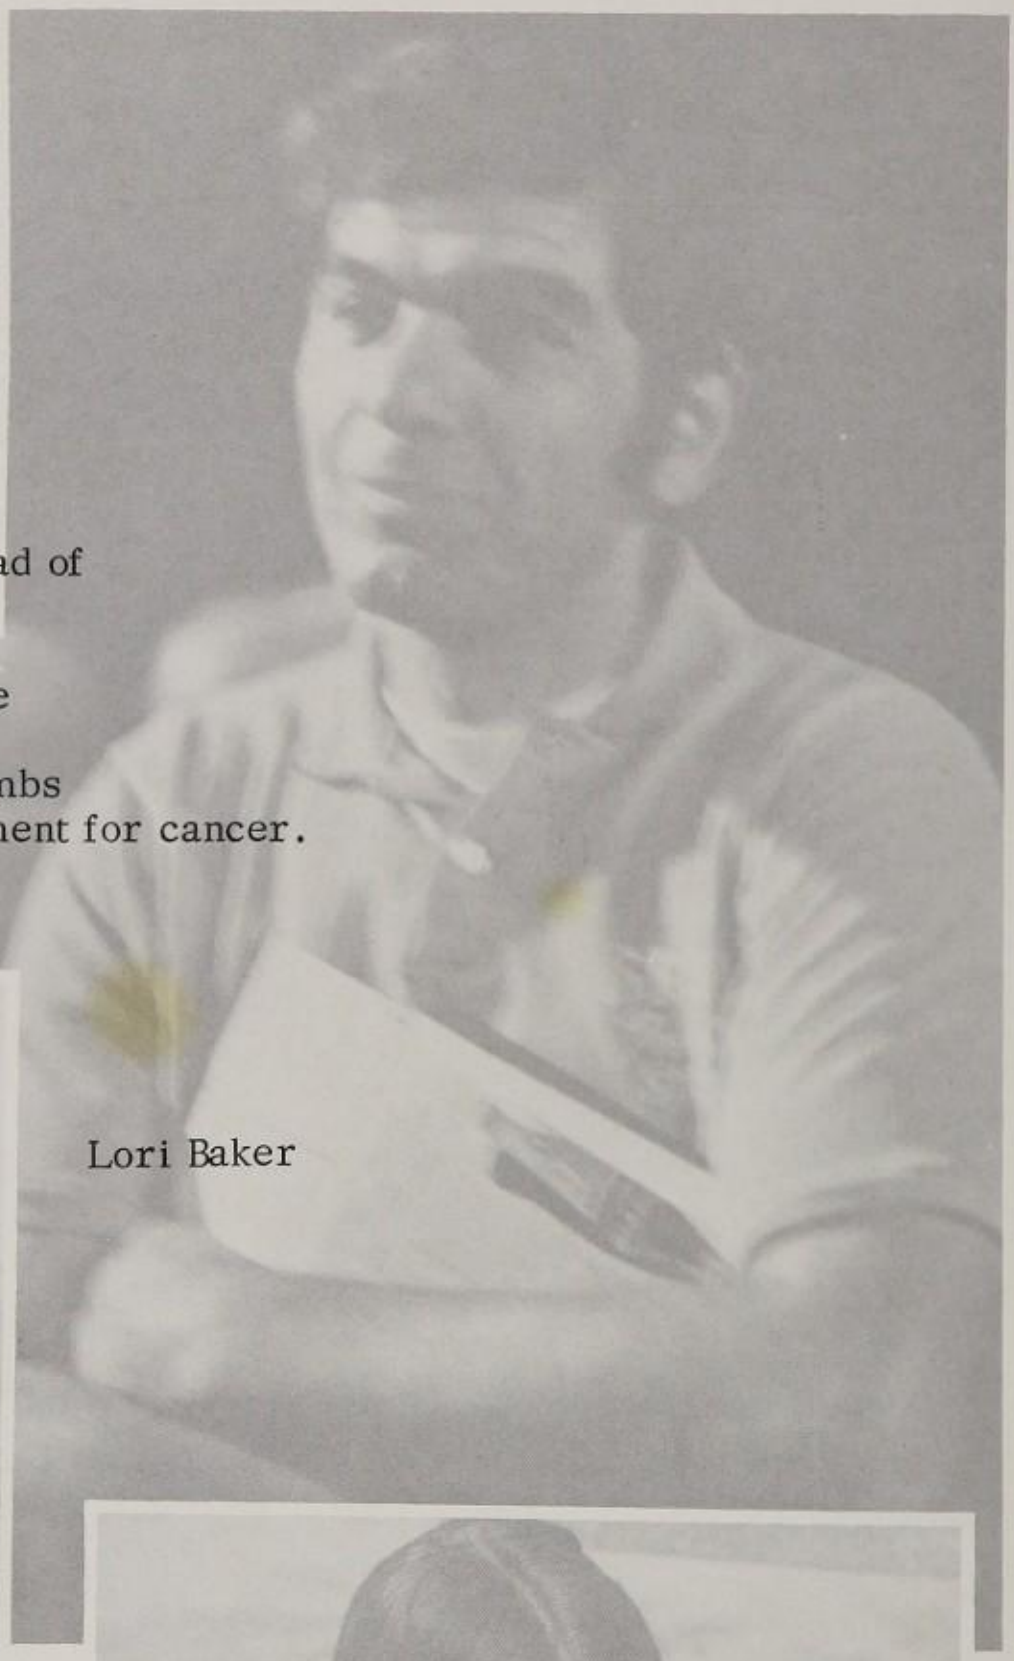
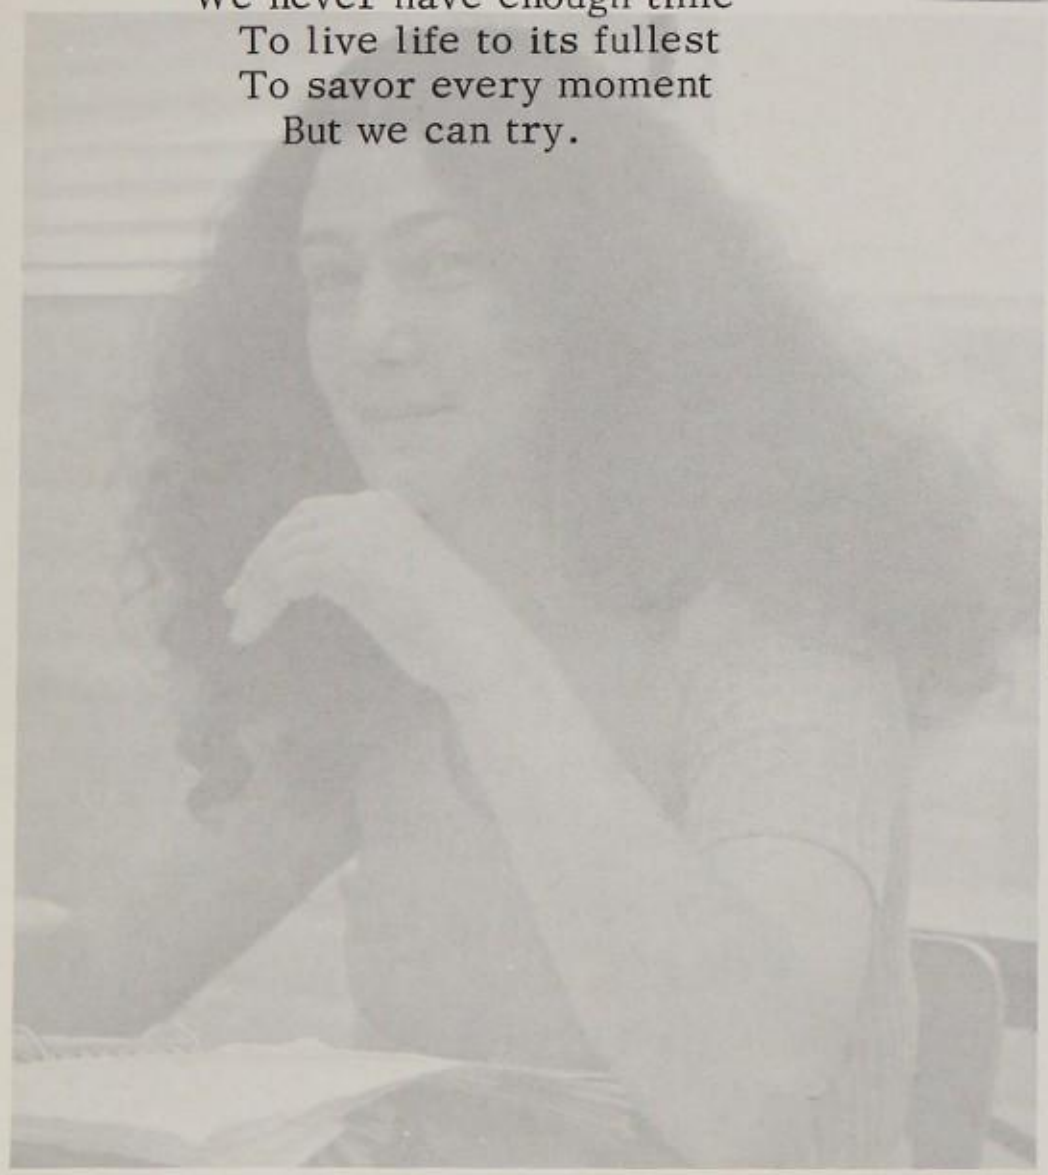
And what about the inventors who build bombs
instead of working on an effective treatment for cancer.



Lori Baker

Time
We never have enough time
To live life to its fullest
To savor every moment
But we can try.



Old Man

I see there life in your eyes
yet your face shows only sadness
Old man, old man
why do you cry out to me?

The years have gone by the tens and I? I have only been a short while
Old man, old man
what can I bring back to you?

Leathery creases you have many but your eyes and voice are young
Old man, old man
your soul is housed in an empty shell.

Your mind is young, your heart is worn from the love of seventy lives
Old man, old man
teach me what you know.

Leanne Jenkins

Woman

was made from the rib of man
She was not created from his head-
to top him
nor from his feet-
to be stepped upon.
She was made
from his side-
to be equal to him:
from beneath his arm-
to be protected by him:
near his heart-
to be loved by him.

Time

Those precious days of early spring
That together we did share
I remember them so vividly.
And how much you once did care.

It's hard for me to accept the fact
Those days are gone forever
You'd said you loved me more than life
And that you'd leave me never.

From this I've learned many things
But the most important one,
Is, that I must go on living
Although those days are done.

What's past is past, I can't change that
The world continues to turn
Time is extremely valuable
It never can return.

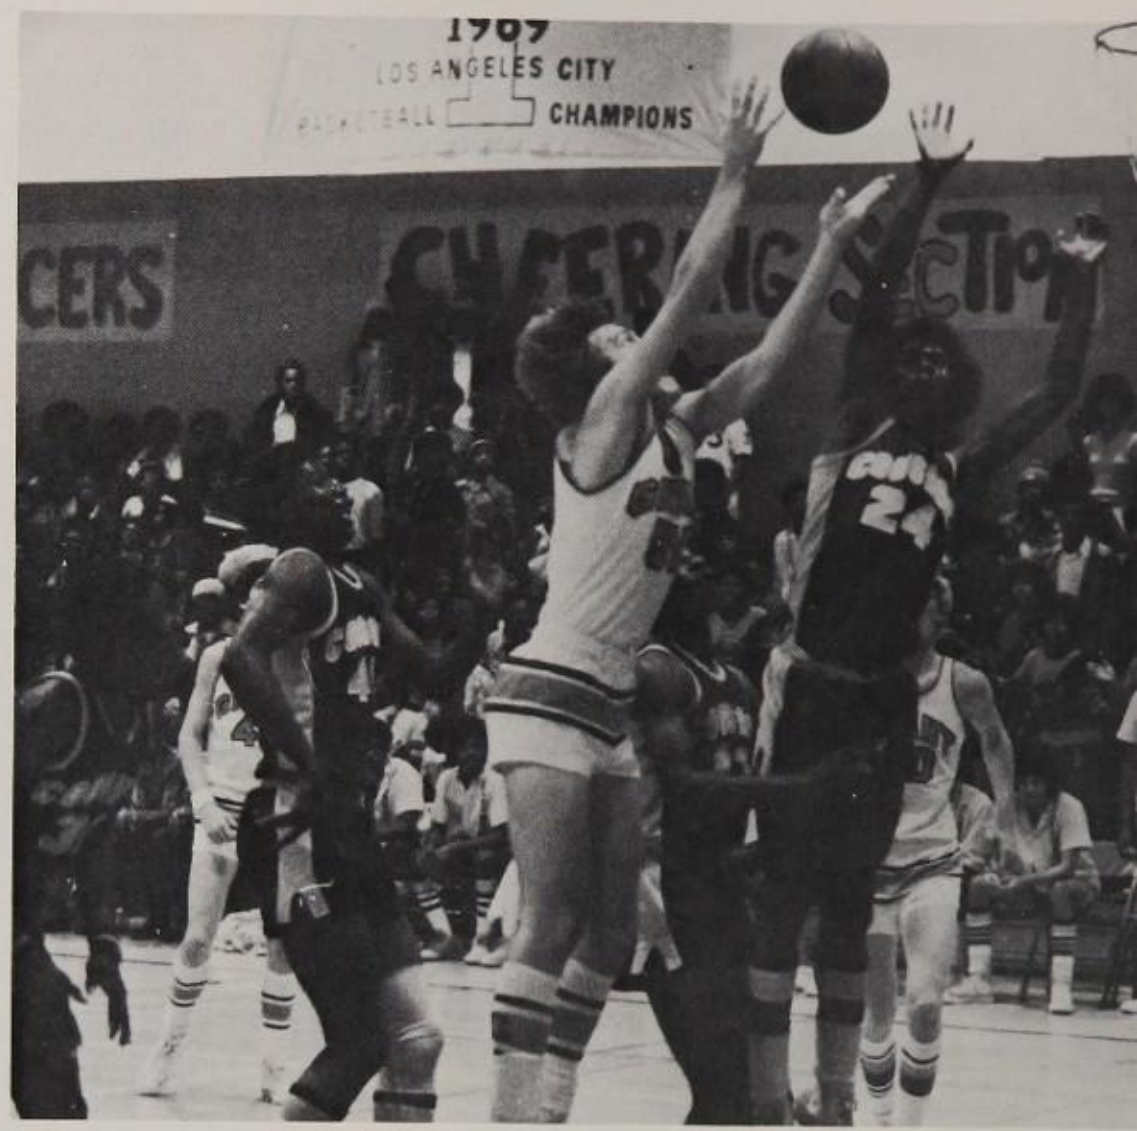
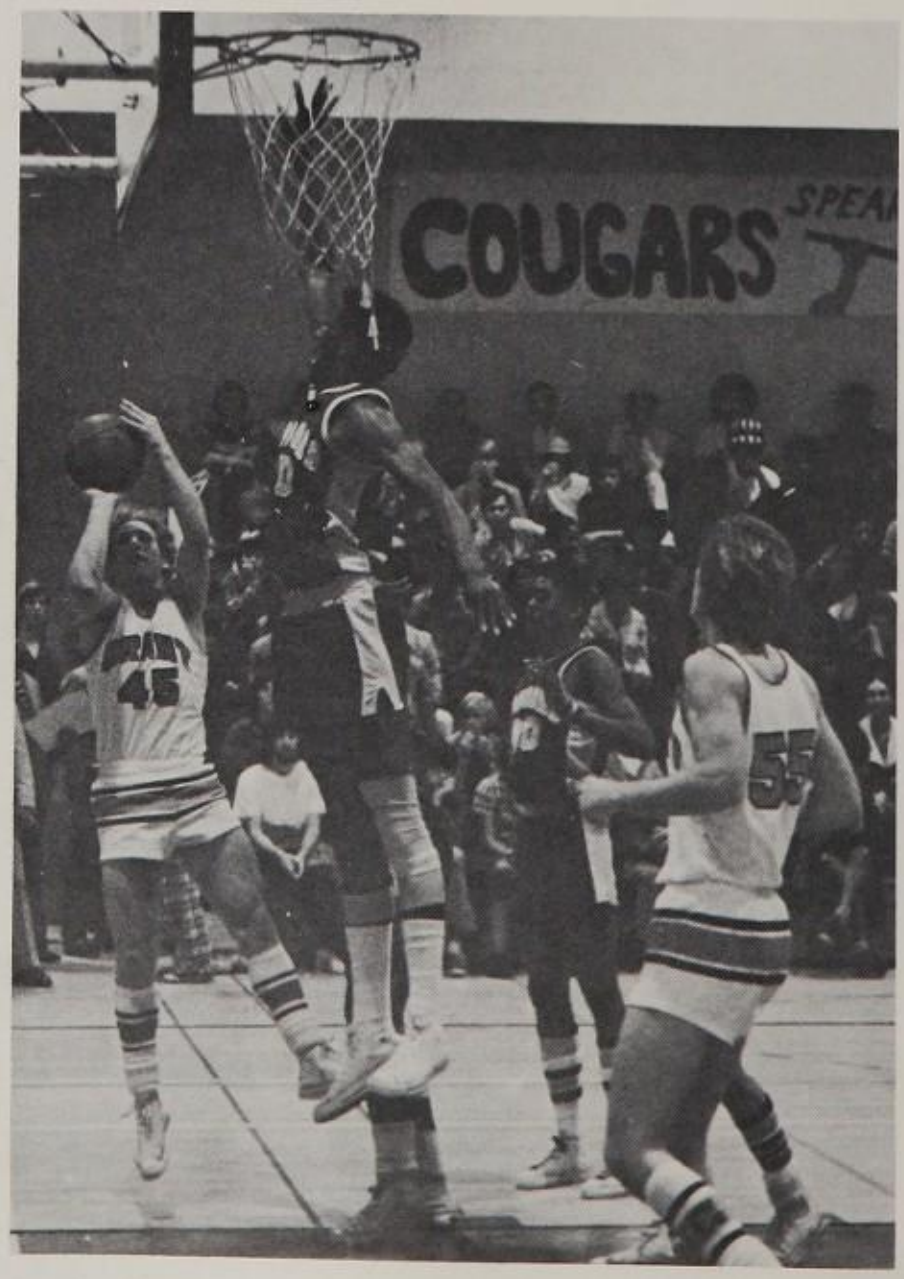
LANCERS BATTLE CITY CHAMPS

Matt Butler shoots against Crenshaw, as Norm Parille (55) and Scot McGeorge (40) look on.



Center Norm Parille battles for a rebound in first round game of the city play-offs.

Randy Tilner scores over the long arm of Gregory Johns, Crenshaw's 6' 8" center.



Scot McGeorge shoots from the free throw line.

Guard Alan Risch soars high to score on this jumper as the Lancer bench observes the action.

Randy Tilner breaks loose to score on this lay-up, much to the dismay fo the Crenshaw cheering section.

Randy Tilner up for one of his successful jump shots.

Jumper Matt Butler expresses the agony of defeat, as the Crenshaw Cougars step over the Lancers en route to their second consecutive city basketball title.

A PLACE

There's a place
Where I run to hide
A place so far away
That sometimes I can't even find
There is peace
There is freedom
In this place but only I am welcome
If we love you might look inside
But you can never enter
There is war
There is hate
In this place
But I cannot escape
If we love you might look inside
But you can never enter
It is not
the love place of its kind
But it's special
Because it's mine, mine...all mine
When I die
My place will live on
But then I
Will hide from no one

Steven R. Siler

A sunny day.
It's lunchtime.
Music is blaring.
A hot wind is blowing.
A breeze sweeps across me.
I suppose it more evenly
Distributes the smog.
K.H.J. bubble gum music
Then, to sophisticated Tull,
That hot, sweaty breeze,
That tenny bopper music,
They converge on my mind.
With a grimace I glance up.
I see the desolate buildings,
Compiled of classrooms,
The birthplace of my dreams.
I look around,
There's a faceless mass of bodies.
What am I doing here?
This is growing up?
I grasp for something familiar.
My peanut butter and jelly sandwich–
It shall never become obsolete.

Jeff Zebrack

No More Sweets

The pain is unbearable;
The ache just cannot be appeased.
I need that certain someone,
Only then will it be relieved.

I look at it gently, and can't believe my ears,
It always looks the same, never
in disguise.
Untouched, pure and waiting.
It will be gone when I open that door.

I open the door to his welcome grin,
And there he cheersome said,
"Welcome in".
My scared body finally took a seat.
He pulled my sweet tooth
no more sweets.

Amy Mann

At the Right Time

When they first heard that their leader was dying,
All of the people started crying,
"He was such a noble man...
great leader of our land!
Why should he die,
rather than you or I?"

But he died, and his legends grew,
he was the greatest the country ever knew.
Men and women and children, too.
None were sure what honors were fitting to do.
And then all the eulogies were read,
Compliment for a man who was already dead.

And all the people remained in mourning,
for a man who most had been criticizing,
And his legends grew and grew,
Of a man all thought they knew,
Who happened to die at the right time,
in the right way.
When others more noble died silently

Doug Teramura

People throughout the ages
have lived out their lives on stages.
Constantly acting,
never really reacting
to the things that they want out of life.
Patricia Holland

Life for me is like an ice cream cone,
No matter how hard I try, I always get licked.

Don't think of me as I was,
Don't think of me as what I want to be,
Don't think of me as someone I will be,
Just think of me.
Nancy Falk

This House Was Once...

Waking and sleeping, and waking again.
That was when my life just began.
I was young, a bride to be...
now he's dead and I'm 93.
I sit alone in his house in a chair,
wrinkled and old with wisps
of grey hair.
It came too late, and left too soon,
but it was beautiful and full as the moon.
Our thoughts together were only one.
Now all is over, there's no more fun.
We shared a home,
a table,
a bed.
Now all is mine.
My husband's dead.
And I remember the proposal night,
it ended in a silly fight.
He came back and I cried,
the second time was when he died.
The floors in the house used to shine,
a glorious bright lust,
now they're blackened with layers of dust.
The table we ate at was fresh, once brand new, now rotted and splintered, and legs...it was few.
This house is an empty and tired
with age.
The house he showed me
when newly engaged...

Robin Black

Like the waterfalls of time, life just goes on and on and wanting to hold on to a moment,

is like wanting to hold water between
open fingers of your hand

All that is left are the drops,
All that is left are the memories

Renu

The Deaf One
Words fall silent on his ear
and he does not know the meaning of hypocrisy;
His soul flies on the wings of peace and because he is on such good terms with himself and the world
and knows not of hatred, prejudice, selfishness, greed, anger he is considered a fool.

Catch A Falcon, Let Me Go

Catch an eagle set him free
Watch him fly far away from me
Stars will show in broad daylight
Sun will shine all through the night

Catch a falcon let me go
Watch me soar above the snow
Blue-eyed skies filled with dreams
Free of traffic, noise and screams.

Catch a sparrow set him free
Watch him go from tree to tree
All you wish is yours to hold
Even rainbows raining gold.

Catch a dove let me go
Watch me seeking and you'll know
It is dawn or a summer's eve
In this land of make-believe.

--Leanne Jenkins

Soul

Welcome to my soul my friend,
Where the tortures never end.
Hellish fires burning deep,
I want death, eternal sleep.
Don't feel pity for what you see,
For if I die, then I'll be free.
Ourside I live, Inside I die.
Can't you see it in my eyes?
Why can't one understand,
What lies beneath the man
Farewell to my soul my friend,
Because, sooh, my life shall end.

Darryl Morden

Love belongs to the centuries.
Its age-old music excitingly plays on and on.
And when this compelling song is over,
Another one will come along.

Patricia Holland

With Each

With each day that dawns, and the joyful bird sing,
a child is born to carry a new name.
With each week as noon passes by,
his mother watches with hopeful tears in her eyes.
With each month, he grows even stronger,
moving down, running longer.

With each year, a prayer is given,
to help her son to keep on living.
With each day, a flower is placed
by his love upon his grave;
For this young man died; in vain;
left his mark without his name.

A special thanks to Bonnie Zelcer and Don Menges for their art work; and to Orpher Banarie for his photos.

To Jerry Mogolian of White's Studios, to "Hap" Zavack of the American Yearbook Company and to Mike Mazo, for handeling our financial affairs.

*And especially to Robert Wilson, for allowing us to make our mistakes, and then correcting them.

Judy,
Let me start off by saying that you're a super person to work with & I'm sure you'll do a lot. Have a lot of fun at your teen-hoopa parties and if you don't behave I'll punch your butt

Love and Good Luck
Steve

Judee-
I'm glad we're friends. Thanx for good advice. I'll try to remember it. Listening to my problems & giving me a great shoulder to cry on. Ed. When you're with me I'll try to be more understanding & patient. Maybe we can have dinner sometime & talk about our problems. Keep up the good work in whatever you do. Always be yourself & don't let anyone change you. Keep your chin up & your head high. Write soon & keep in touch.
Love ya,
Janet Keyser

Judee,
words don't have to be heard to understand that we've both had our differences. Even though, I have enjoyed the times we shared together. Best of Luck in everything.
Love,
Janet Keyser

Dear Judee, I'm sorry it wasn't for me. I wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors. Always be yourself & don't let anyone change you. Keep your chin up & your head high. Write soon & keep in touch.
Love ya,
Janet Keyser

Jude!,
Well what can I
but good luck. Have a great summer, lets get together over the summer.
We will have a great time.
I miss you as a friend!
Lets get together. Stay
Happy. Love ya always Patty

P.S. Call me
I will be getting my own phone.

Dear Jude,
It's been great knowing you
